3 Card of Thanks

THE ORANGE STREET P. T. A. desires, through this medium, to extend hearty thanks to the manager of the Lomita Theatre for the splendid donation of half the proceeds from the picture "Two Arabian Knights," shown on May 23.

WE find ourselves at a loss for words with which to express our sincere appreciation of the beautiful floral tributes and other expressions of sympathy from individuals and organizations during the illness and at the death of our dear son, Robert. The kindness of our many friends has lightened our sorrow immeasurably.

LAUGH CLOWN LAUGH

The efforts that are put forth today by buying clubs—by sales promotions—by sidewalk brokers—is when all is said, only an old game. The writer has watched these deals come and go for the last 30 years.

Our way of buying from the original sources in quality lots for cash—offering you standard merchandise for cash every day in the year at cut prices—is filling a want in every community. As we are about to open another store within easy driving distance of Torrance, we ask those of you who were not here when we opened our Torrance store to compare our way of handling it with the usual way of doing business. While not perfect, we believe our way of distributing merchandise is a sound way—and worthy of your interest and patronage. We have no stock to sell you. We are not looking for any borrow money—only your good will. As a Torrance retail store with an investment large enough to assure you we are here to stay—we ask you to compare values before you buy.

If our prices are lowest, trade with us—if not, spend your money where it will do you the most good.

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED IN RIVERSIDE

Riverside was the setting for a quiet little wedding Sunday, at 2 o'clock, when Miss Ann Frances Dotson, of Pasadena, became the bride of Nicholas Frank Gallucci at the Presbyterian parsonage, with Dr. Barnett officiating. Miss Dotson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dotson of Bellflower, was attended by Miss Thelma Innis of Pasadena, and Harold Leach of Glendale was best man.

The bride wore a gown of pale yellow georgette, with a large hat, and the bridesmaid wore a pink georgette frock with large hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallucci will leave in a week or ten days for a honeymoon tour to the Grand Canyon of Arizona. They will be at home at 2305 Redondo boulevard after June 26th.

Mr. Gallucci, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Gallucci of Louisville, Colo., is well known in Torrance. He is superintendent of the Export Refining corporation.

Bill Mullins and Forrest McKinley were business visitors to Los Angeles Tuesday.
